DESCRIPTION

Escape the norm and try something exciting and fun with this Unique Places to Stay experience.

Getting away for a night can be the ideal opportunity to experience something new, and staying somewhere different which is totally unique to anywhere you've ever stayed before can really add an element of fun.

With many unforgettable locations to choose from and plenty of venues to experience something completely unique, there are locations to suit everyone. You might choose to stay a night in a cider house, or perhaps an old registry office, or you could choose an old watermill, a potting shed or even a moated hotel.

Whichever option you choose, a break in an unusual setting is sure to be a fantastic experience.
