DESCRIPTION

Enjoy a classic afternoon tea with a kir royale cocktail!

Bea's of Bloomsbury have preserved the origins of afternoon tea as a relaxing meal shared with friends. Catching up over a cup of tea is a time-honoured British tradition and the addition of an array of delicious sandwiches, pastries and of course scones with clotted cream and jam just make it all the more enjoyable.

With three tearooms located in some of the most stylish areas of London, afternoon tea at Bea's is the perfect way for families, friends or couples to spend some quality time together. Their exquisitely appointed tea rooms are designed to provide stylish surroundings in which to enjoy a relaxing treat with no distractions except for the vast array of cakes on offer.

As you would expect from an afternoon tea, this experience starts with a warm welcome from the café staff who will make guests comfortable and provide them with a kir royale cocktail to get the afternoon tea off to an indulgent start. Then, it's time to sit back and prepare to be impressed as the food is served.

The afternoon tea menu has been carefully crafted to provide guests with a spread which combines the traditional with a modern twist. The menu includes a selection of mini brioche topped with avocado and yoghurt, egg mayonnaise and cress, smoked salmon and crème fraiche and more. These are accompanied by scones with clotted cream and jam and a selection of pastries which are all washed down with a choice of teas, infusions and coffees. This traditional afternoon tea experience is ideal for anyone who enjoys the finer things in life and prefers to enjoy them in a convivial atmosphere. Please note there is a 12.5% discretionary service charge.
