DESCRIPTION

Explore the ancient sites of Bath

The Roman Baths is a site of historical interest in the English city of Bath. The house is a well-preserved Roman site for public bathing. The buildings above street level date from the 19th century and The Roman Baths themselves are below the modern street level. There are four main features: The Sacred Spring, the Roman Temple, the Roman Bath House and the Museum.

Enjoy exploring the best preserved Roman religious spa from the ancient world. This fascinating site is Britain's only hot spring and you will be able to see the water's source and walk where Romans walked on the ancient stone pavements.

This is a one-night stay for two people including breakfast at a four-star hotel in city of Bath and includes entrance to the Roman Baths.
