DESCRIPTION

Enjoy a day exploring a stunning stately home followed by an evening's entertainment within its grounds. Take in the splendour of a grand home which boasts majestic surroundings, rich in heritage. When you've finished exploring the stately home, you can make your way to the grounds for a stunning show of pyrotechnics and displays followed by a superb array of classical music guaranteed to make you wave your flag, sing out loud and even waltz under the stars!

All concerts are picnic style, featuring a full piece orchestra. You are guaranteed an evening of superb popular classics alongside all the traditional flag-waving favourites associated with the "Last Night of the Proms", such as Rule Britannia, 1812 Overture, Jerusalem and Land Of Hope & Glory.

The concerts also feature an aerial Spitfire display, as the orchestra performs rousing music such as Holst's Jupiter. For the finale, sit back and enjoy the spectacular fireworks.

You will need to book your concert and entrance tickets prior to visiting your chosen stately home. Please note, the entrance is on the day of the proms only and is self-guided.

When you have booked your chosen venue, tickets for the proms will be emailed to you to print at home and entrance tickets to the house will be posted to the address given on booking at least a week prior to the event.

For safety reasons, please note barbecues, garden flares and pets are not permitted at the concert. Air displays are subject to weather conditions. Most people bring a picnic although public catering is available. There is no seating at these concerts so please bring along rugs or garden chairs. The use of recording equipment is prohibited and please allow sufficient time to park your car as no vehicles are allowed on the concert area. The concert car park opens at 2:00pm.

You can spend most of the day at your chosen venue, concert gates open at approximately 4pm.
