

Afternoon Tea Cruise for Two on the Thames

KEY INFORMATION

Your experience will last approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes.

There will be a maximum of 150 other people on the boat. Unfortunately, this experience is not suitable for spectators.

If you have any dietary requirements, please check to see if there is an alternative on booking.

The minimum age for this experience is 3 years.

This experience is available Wednesday to Saturday, subject to availability, from April to October.

LOCATION

London, Victoria Embankment.

DESCRIPTION

Discover the magic of the city from the unique perspective of the Thames whilst enjoying sandwiches, pastries and scones, as well as an assortment of teas accompanied by music from a solo pianist. Picture sipping on a cup of fine tea such as Darjeeling, with an assortment of afternoon delights as you drift along the river and take in the magnificence that is the London skyline. The perfect way to spend an afternoon. All pastries and sandwiches are prepared on board ensuring you are served the freshest and most delicious treats.

On arrival you will be shown to your table and seated. Your afternoon tea will include a selection of freshly made sandwiches, delicious pastries and succulent cakes as well as an assortment of teas. To accompany your afternoon tea there will be some entertainment from a solo pianist.

Please note that you will need to book a date for the afternoon tea cruise in advance, and dates are subject to availability. You will receive a voucher to take part in your experience. This should be handed in at the Bateaux London Office before boarding the boat for your cruise and afternoon tea. You will board from Embankment Pier at 3.15pm.