DESCRIPTION

Explore the taste of the Himalayas with this unique tea cocktail making experience.

For tea lovers everywhere, this experience offers you the unique opportunity to make tea cocktails and then sample them for yourself.

Mount Himalayas Tea originated out of a love from harvesting herbs in their family owned farms, and producing herbal distillates from aromatic plants, including more recently, the blending of herbal fruit teas. Mount Himalayas Tea are passionate about the flavours that tea can bring, using only the best handpicked tea from around the world they can prepare tea blends exactly as you wish. This experience is about the enjoyment of drinking tea, trying new flavours and experiencing exotic tastes.

Upon arrival you will start by learning about the different ingredients, their origins and history, which go into a tea cocktail. After this you will then be able to get hands on by starting to make and shake the different flavours of tea under the expert guidance of the tea expert. You will be able to help make up to 10 different tea cocktails and have a chance to enjoy all the different non-alcoholic cocktails at the end of the experience. You will also be served a cake made from tea.
