Warner Bros Studio Tour London 'The Making of Harry Potter' has quickly become one of the UK's most popular attractions. Located at Leavesden Studios, in North London, this spectacular walking tour is a must-see for fans of the spell-binding films.

This tour is designed to take you on a magical journey, letting you in on some closely guarded secrets which help make Harry Potter the most successful film series of all time.

You'll be transported to a world of magical spells, dark villains and daring heroes as you arrive at Hogwarts. Discover how the Great Hall's magical ceiling was created, admire the well-worn furniture inside the Gryffindor Common Room and peek inside the filing cabinet inside headmaster Dumbledore's private office.

Experience where wizards do their banking at Gringotts Wizarding Bank, plus Eelops Owl Emporium where wizards buy their owls.

Marvel at the iconic props from the films, including Harry's Nimbus 2000 and Hagrid's motorcycle. Learn how creatures are brought to life with green screen effects, animatronics and life-sized models. Rediscover other memorable sets from the film series, including the Boys' dormitory, Hagrid's hut, the Potions Classroom and Professor Umbridge's office at the Ministry of Magic.

As well as exploring the wizardry world of Harry Potter, you can head to Mercure Hunton Park Hotel for afternoon tea. Just a short drive away from the Warner Bros. Studio London, this charming Queen Anne House, set in 22 acres of landscaped gardens, is the perfect location for afternoon tea in pleasant surroundings before or after the Warner Bros Studio Tour London 'Making of Harry Potter'.
