DESCRIPTION

Anyone with an interest in wine will know that part of the enjoyment comes from sipping a glass in stunning surroundings with a convivial atmosphere. Laithwaite's Wine provide all that and more with their wine events - fun, informal gatherings which take place all around the country. The events are designed to make learning about wine and tasting the varieties on offer an experience that everyone can enjoy.

With wine makers and tasting experts on hand to answer questions and offer guidance, these events are ideal for those who are completely new to the wine tasting game as well as those who might have tried something similar before. The events take place in locations all around the UK and each one is a unique experience. You can choose the nearest one to you, or go for an event a little further afield, at a venue which holds a particular appeal or just in an area which takes your fancy.

Beginning with a warm welcome from Laithwaite's staff you will enter a world of wine where you will be able to sample fantastic wines from across the globe, including a number presented by their producers. Learn the stories behind the bottles with educated guidance from our friendly team who will be on hand to help pour and answer any questions you may have. If you are entering the event a novice, you will most certainly be leaving a connoisseur!

With events across the UK there is typically one a year at each location, therefore you should call the number provided in your gift pack at your earliest convenience to check forthcoming availability.

You may be charged a supplement fee if you wish to go to a more expensive event. This includes Laithwaites live events as well as their Vintage Festival in London. There may also be other events that have a supplement payable, please check upon booking.

Please note, your voucher is not your ticket you must pre-book your tasting experience.
