DESCRIPTION

Is the pooch in your life always more interested in what's on your plate than in their own bowl? Do you catch your furry friend eyeing up your dinner and plotting their next roast potato robbery?! If so, Top Collar's subscription boxes may be the solution you need to keep your sandwiches free from bite marks and your canine's tail happily wagging.

With natural, gluten and wheat free treats crammed with nutrients, crunch and flavour, the boxes take inspiration from the most delicious human delicacies, so we won't judge if you're tempted to try one. All treats are hand baked in the UK, which means maximum flavour and freshness are maintained throughout every treat combination.

The boxes are delivered straight to your door by post, so prepare for your postman to become the most popular visitor to your household! Each box will also fit through your letter box, so no need to wait in or rush home for your parcel to arrive.

With two boxes arriving each month, each pack will also be personalised with your doggy's best head shot on the front, so be sure to upload one of the best from their portfolio.

Inside your box, expect to find treats based on classic human favourites including, a Full English Sunday Roast, Pork Pie, Salmon and Egg, Cheese and Biscuits, Chicken Tagine and even a Turkey Dinner at Christmas time!
