DESCRIPTION

Introducing an exciting and innovative style to home baking, If I Knew You Were Coming's subscription boxes make the perfect gift for keen bakers who are rich in enthusiasm, but poor in time! Perfect for bakers at any level, each recipe will take the fuss out of preparation, but maintain all the delicious flavours and fun.

Each month for three months, the lucky recipient will receive two delicious recipes to create within the comfort of their home. Every delivery will include all of the dry ingredients needed to create two bakes, so only a few fresh ingredients such as butter, oil, milk and eggs will need to be added. All of the dry ingredients also arrive pre-weighed, meaning there will be no waste and your cupboards will remain free from half full packets of weird and wonderful baking utensils. You won't even need your own trays or tins, as each pack comes with a foil backed baking parchment sheet, which is pre-folded to make your own one use baking tray.

The recipes will vary from the delicious list below:

- Coconut and white chocolate cookies
- Strawberries and cream muffins
- Chocolate and caramel muffins
- White chocolate and cranberry cookies
- Classic chocolate brownies
- Caramel brownies
- White chocolate blondies
- Chocolate chip and orange cookies
- Apple and sultana muffins
- Almond and poppy seed muffins
- Lemon drizzle muffins
- Oaty biscuits

Your subscription box will arrive through your letter box in the form of little brown package, meaning it will always be waiting safe and sound on your doormat. Mix, bake, enjoy!
