DESCRIPTION

Discover a world of wonderful flavour with this three month speciality craft beer subscription from Beer52, delivered straight to your door. Each month the recipient will receive 8 top-quality craft beers, each lovingly hand-picked by the resident Beer52 expert who travels all around the world in search for the tastiest and most interesting brews they can find. Each box comes complete with a copy of Ferment, the UK's No.1 craft beer magazine and an accompanying tasty snack to enjoy with the beers.

At the start of the subscription, the recipient will choose whether they would prefer to receive a light case or a mixed case of beer each month. A light case includes a selection of lighter beers such as pale ales and IPA, and mixed cases include light pale ales, dark rich stouts and porters.

These monthly tasting boxes are the perfect gift for those with a thirst for something new.
