DESCRIPTION

Experience our green and pleasant land, with this charming break for two

The UK certainly is a 'green and pleasant land' from bustling villages with close-knit communities to rural outposts where neighbours are few and far between. There are degrees of 'rural' living, and you can have a taste of whichever most appeals to you. One of the best things about this one night break for two, including breakfast, is that you can really immerse yourself in the pastoral lifestyle. So if you want to learn more about farming and the rural economy, then you can choose to stay on a small holding where you can have a taste of what it's like to live off the land. If you prefer to soak up a little history, then you can stay in a village inn, the traditional heart of the community where you can learn all about the local traditions and maybe even hear some of the more surprising secrets from the area's past.

There are a hand-picked selection of places to stay where your hosts will be on hand to help you make the most of your time and provide their insight into the local area. This could be invaluable if you're after a recommendation for a secluded spot for a picnic, or a place for a romantic walk.

Types of locations available include countryside farms, small holdings, village inns, guest houses and charming B&Bs. With a wide range of locations to choose from, you're sure to find something that suits you perfectly.
