Cleaning

To clean wooden or metal components, please use a soft cloth slightly dampened with water and wipe clean. Then buff with a dry clean cloth.
Vacuum lightly, or use a soft brush on a regular basis. Accumulated dirt will accelerate wear and dull the colours.
Cleaning spills
Act promptly. Carefully soak up any liquid spillages by blotting with a clean, dry, absorbent cloth. Stains can then be removed mostly by using water, but stubborn stains may need a mild household detergent.
Don't use stain remover without testing it on a swatch first.
For any solid spillages use a teaspoon or flat utensil to remove the solid from the surface and follow the same practice as for liquid to remove the stain residue.
Repeat the process until the stain is removed and allow to air dry.
Clean cushions in situ only. Do not remove cushion covers to clean.
DO NOT WASH COVERS USING A WASHING MACHINE.
Clean all parts of the sofa at the same time.
For more stubborn stains contact a professional cleaner
Velvet, Chenille and Pile Fabrics - These are wonderfully durable fabrics. However, they are prone to pile crushing, indentation marks and colour shading variation depending on the pile direction. Thankfully, getting them back to their original appearance is easy.Just softly brush the pile in the opposite direction to the nap.
Wool and Wool Effect - Pilling and bobbling are natural characteristics of these fabrics and can't be avoided. But they can be managed. To reduce or remove minor pilling, use a soft brush or a fabric pill remover.
Flat Weaves - Durable and tightly constructed, these fabrics often feel a little stiff to begin with. Don't worry. They'll loosen up with time and use. To speed up the process, use a soft brush or vacuum to buff and soften the fabric. For faux leather upholstered seating
For faux leather upholstered seating.
Faux Leathers - Faux leather should be cleaned by lightly brushing or lightly wiping with a slightly dampened cloth. Do not spot clean with upholstery cleaner, as this can damage the surface of the material.
Occasional overall cleaning of faux leathers should be carried out approximately once a month by using a slightly dampened soft cloth; then buff with a dry clean soft cloth
Over time the faux leather material will flatten on areas most used, producing some shading.
