

Relaxing Break in the Country

DESCRIPTION

Rural life in the UK has traditionally centred around charming villages, beautiful scenery and farming. What better way to explore it all than getting away from the hustle and bustle of daily life and escaping to the countryside with this one night break, including breakfast that will really set you up for the day ahead.

The break is as much about enjoying the accommodation as it is about immersing yourselves in the pleasures of rural life.

You will also have the benefit of the best countryside guides, as your host will have a unique insight into the local area. If you fancy a secluded stroll, some wildlife spotting or a great place for a picnic, you'll be in good hands.

Types of locations available include countryside farms, small holdings, village inns, guest houses and charming B&BS. With a wide range of locations to choose from, you're sure to find something that suits you perfectly. Choose one from the following:

One Night Pod Break

One Night Room Only Break

One Night Bed and Breakfast Break
