Oud & Rose

SCENTED DIFFUSER

This beautiful design features the Eton Floral print that exudes tropical elegance. Held in the Laura Ashley archive, this print features stylised camellias and convolvulus flowers intertwined with leafy stems, creating a timeless botanical charm.

A rich and sensual velvet rose and oud, heightened with wild raspberries, wrapped around a heart of jasmine, clove bud and sheer violet flowers, nesting on a soft sandalwood and vanilla fond.

The fragrance in this diffuser will last for weeks depending on temperature and location.

To use:

- Remove outer packaging before use. Read instructions and retain for future reference.
- Unscrew the cap and carefully remove the stopper from the bottle before replacing the cap.
- Immerse 6-8 reeds into the bottle and place on a flat surface, away from strong winds.
- After a few hours the scent will be released from the reeds. The intensity of the fragrance can be decreased/increased by removing/adding reeds.
- Carefully remove the reeds from the bottle, rotate by 180° and re-immers into the bottle each week to refresh the fragrance.

Place in a secure location and keep out of reach of children and pets at all times. Avoid contact with eyes and skin. Do not place directly on to any unprotected surfaces, as the liquid may harm polished/painted/plastic items. Please place on a solvent resistant tray. Do not use for purposes other than originally intended. Do not light the reeds. Wash hands after use.
